July 12, 2015

BLESSED BE THE GOD AND FATHER

of our Lord Jesus Christ who has blessed us in Christ with every spiritual blessing in the heavens

Reflection on the Scriptures

St. Paul is completely preoccupied with being in Jesus. In today's passage from Ephesians, Paul mentions benefits and blessings that come from being in Jesus numerous times in twelve verses. Paul is underscoring the critical differences of our location: it makes an eternal difference whether we live our life in Jesus or outside of Jesus. Paul proclaims that in Jesus we:

- have "every spiritual blessing in the heavens" (Ephesians 1:3),
- have been "chosen" before the world began, to be holy and blameless (Ephesians 1:4, 11, 13),
- have been chosen "to be full of love" (Ephesians 1:4),
- have "glorious favor...bestowed on us" (Ephesians 1:6), and
- "have been redeemed and our sins forgiven" (Ephesians 1:7).

The best way to be in Jesus is to have Jesus in you. Most of you have received the eucharistic Jesus today. Jesus reveals that the person "who feeds on My flesh and drinks My blood remains in Me," and He will remain in them (John 6:56; see also John 17:23).

However, in our God-given free will, we can choose to not be in Jesus, but rather be separated from Him. As the song goes, we can go through life saying, "I did it my way." There's a place for those who have chosen not to be in Jesus. "This state of definitive self-exclusion from communion with God and the blessed is called 'hell'" (Catechism, 1033).

Jesus says: "Live on in Me" (John 15:4). What's your choice?
