Reflection on the Scriptures

"Are you jealous?" —Numbers 11:29

The devil couldn't stop the seventy-two Israelite elders from receiving the Spirit (see Numbers 11:25-26). However, he hoped to be more successful by enticing the Israelites to quench the Spirit (1 Thessalonians 5:19) through jealousy (Numbers 11:29).

Demons could not prevent a man from using Jesus' name to expel them (Mark 9:38). Therefore, they tried to stop the continuation of this man's ministry of deliverance (Mark 9:38). Once again, the demons tried to accomplish this through jealousy.

Jesus is dead set against jealous people being sad at others' successes and thereby saddening the Holy Spirit (Ephesians 4:30). He warns that if we're jealous of other people's hands because they work better than ours and can make more money, then we should cut off our own hands (Mark 9:43). If we're jealous of others' speed, strength, or health, we should cut off our feet (Mark 9:45). If we're jealous of how others look, we should tear out one of our eyes (Mark 9:47). If you have a "jealous bone in your body," take out the bone or amputate that part of your body.

Jealousy is one of the works of the flesh (Galatians 5:20). "I warn you, as I have warned you before: those who do such things will not inherit the kingdom of God!" (Galatians 5:21) Repent of jealousy. Don't compare yourself with others. Believe in God the Father's love for you as His child.
