

Fifteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time
July 10, 2016

Reflection on the Scriptures

"Which of these three, in your opinion, was neighbor to the man who fell in with the robbers?" —Luke 10:36

-Life is not just a matter of loving God but of loving the Lord our God with all our hearts, all our souls, all our strength, and all our minds (Luke 10:27).

How do we know whether we are loving God with all our being? A good indication is whether or not we are loving our neighbors as ourselves (Luke 10:27). "One who has no love for the brother he has seen cannot love the God he has not seen" (1 John 4:20).

How do we know whether we love our neighbors? We love our neighbors if we are willing to give hands-on, sacrificial service to them, as did the Good Samaritan (Luke 10:33-35). We love our neighbors if we are willing to lay down our lives for them (1 John 3:16), even if they are our enemies (see Romans 5:8). We love our neighbors if we love as the crucified Jesus loves. Consequently, we love our neighbors by grace, not by any power of our own.

If you love as Jesus loves, you love your neighbor and you love God with all your heart. Live a life of love in Jesus.

Next Sunday, the Catholic Women of ROL will ask everyone to wear a name tag so we can get to know each other better and build a stronger community of faith!
