Reflection on the Scriptures

"Increase our faith." —Luke 17:5

When Habakkuk prayed, he cried out, "Violence!" (Habakkuk 1:2) He described his situation as "ruin," "misery," "destruction," "strife," and "clamorous discord" (Habakkuk 1:3). He begged God to intervene (Habakkuk 1:2), but God didn't seem to do anything.

We live in times which fit Habakkuk's description. We live in the most violent and murderous of times for several reasons. One major reason is the mass murders occurring through abortions. We tend to feel depressed and hopeless. However, the Lord calls this a "rash" response to the violence and evil in our society (see Habakkuk 2:4). Rather, our response should be one of faith (Habakkuk 2:4). If we have faith the size of a mustard seed, we can uproot the violence and death entrenched in our society (Luke 17:6).

Pope St. John Paul II taught: "If we look at today's world, we are struck by many negative factors that can lead to pessimism. But this feeling is unjustified: we have faith in God our Father and Lord, in His goodness and mercy" (Mission of the Redeemer, 86). Therefore, despite violence and sin, don't be pessimistic, but have even greater faith. Walk by faith, not sight (2 Corinthians 5:7).
