

Seventh Sunday in Ordinary Time
February 19, 2017

You have heard that it was said
You shall love your neighbor as yourself
and hate your enemy
BUT I SAY TO YOU

LOVE YOUR ENEMIES

PRAY FOR THOSE WHO PERSECUTE YOU

that you may be CHILDREN of your HEAVENLY FATHER

so be perfect just as your Heavenly Father is perfect

Reflection on the Scriptures

"Take no revenge and cherish no grudge against your fellow countrymen. You shall love your neighbor as yourself. I am the Lord." —Leviticus 19:18

Jesus was asked: "Teacher, which commandment of the law is the greatest?" (Matthew 22:36) Jesus surprised His questioner by mentioning not one commandment but two. He surprised all of Judaism by maintaining that loving one's neighbor as oneself is the second commandment, and together with the first commandment forms the basis of the law and the prophets (Matthew 22:40).

The Biblical context for the second commandment isn't merely about generally helping out our neighbors or being friendly to them. In Leviticus 19:18, to love our neighbor specifically means not bearing hatred toward them, not taking revenge on them, and not cherishing a grudge against them. So when Jesus was asked to name the greatest commandment, He did not merely add to the first commandment the command to love our neighbor; He also implied a prohibition against hating, taking revenge, and cherishing grudges.

Is there anyone you hate? Do you want to get back at someone? Are you holding a grudge? Have you forgiven from your heart everyone for everything? (Matthew 18:35) Do you love your neighbor as yourself by God's standards? This Lent, be reconciled, forgive, and love your neighbor.
