Reflection on the Scriptures

Jesus entered a village where a woman named Martha welcomed Him to her home. She had a sister named Mary." —Luke 10:38-39

-Some people say they are like Martha; others say they are like Mary. However, the Lord is not calling us to be Martha or Mary, but Martha and Mary.

We should imitate Abraham, Sarah, and Martha by making great sacrifices in offering hospitality. Prior to our high-tech times, a family began preparing a meal by picking out a steer and working with flour (Genesis 18:6-7). No freezer, microwaves, or packaged foods! To offer hospitality was a monumental, sacrificial task. We can understand why Martha complained about being left alone to do such daunting household tasks (Luke 10:40).

We also need to imitate Mary by sitting at the Lord's feet and listening to His words (Luke 10:39). This too is a formidable task. Listening to someone, especially to God, is often more challenging than the hardest work.

All workers must be listening to the Lord, or they won't know what they're doing or why they're doing it. All listeners need to do some working. Those who hear God's Word must do God's Word, or they will be deceiving themselves (James 1:22). "Work with anxious concern to achieve your salvation" (Philippians 2:12). Only those who are like both Martha and Mary are like Jesus. Be like Jesus.

Announcements

"NAME TAG" SUNDAY: Many times we see familiar faces at Mass but haven't had the opportunity to know them by name. Having a "connection" with others in the parish is what makes and keeps a growing parish strong and healthy. Today, the Catholic Women of ROL will ask everyone to wear a name tag so we can get to know each other better and build a stronger community of faith!

MARRIAGE ENCOUNTER: So many times we are like Martha, "anxious and worried about many things", we forget the most important thing – Jesus. Learn how to make Jesus a part of your marriage. Sign up for a Worldwide Marriage Encounter weekend: August 26-28 – Maui or September 23-25 – Oahu. For more information contact Lee & Tanya Barbero, (808) 268-1578 on Maui, or Jose & Mary Elizabeth Alvior, (808) 391-2045 on Oahu; or visit our website at www.hawaiiwwme.org

PREACHING PARTNERS: This month we started a new ministry that involves the laity in the Sunday preaching. Each month a member of the parish will assist the homilist by reflecting on the Sunday Scriptures and offering his or her insights, stories, and suggestions for developing the homily. July's Preaching Partner is Marvin Uehara. If you are interested in being a Preaching Partner, please speak to Fr. William.

IMPORTANT REMINDERS FOR THE LAY FAITHFUL:

- If a Catholic is getting married, the Catholic party is obligated to be married in the Catholic Church in order to remain in good standing with the Church. Fr. William is happy to assist couples who are only married civilly to be married in the Church. The process is not complicated or expensive. Please speak to him after Mass.
- Infants should be baptized within a few months after birth. Prolonging the baptism for a year or more denies the child the grace and protection of the sacrament. Parents of children (7 or under) can arrange a meeting with Zach to schedule the baptism. Children 7 years or older are prepared according to the Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults.
- It is important not to delay the Anointing of the Sick. If a loved one is seriously ill or receiving hospice care, please call the Parish Office to arrange for the Sacrament of the Anointing. The Anointing of the Sick is also celebrated every 3rd Saturday after the 5:15 PM Mass.
- Catholics must treat the cremated remains of a loved one with reverence. It is not acceptable to scatter the ashes at sea or to keep them in the home. They must be buried in the ground or at sea (the whole urn), or placed in a columbarium. Please contact the Parish Office to assist with the proper disposition of a loved one's cremated remains.

If you have any questions about any of the information above, please speak to Fr. William, Deacon Joe, or Zach in the Parish Office. We'll be happy to assist you!

THE WELCOME KIOSK Please visit our Welcome Kiosk after Mass on the Lanai if you are new and would like to register, RSVP for events, volunteer for ministry, or for more information about our parish activities!
