

Nineteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time
August 7, 2016

Let your lamps be burning like those awaiting their master's return. Blessed are those servants whom the master finds vigilant on his arrival.

Reflection on the Scriptures

It has pleased your Father to give you the kingdom." —Luke 12:32

Jesus has revealed to us that our future will be a terrible, just punishment forever or perfect love and happiness forever. This revelation is mind-boggling (to put it mildly). We have no experience of "forever," and the possibility of everlasting punishment is overwhelming. Under these circumstances, many people "shut down," "freeze up," and become spiritually paralyzed. They try to forget about eternity, the very goal of this earthly life.

Before Jesus revealed His final coming, Judgment Day, and the afterlife, He commanded us: "Do not live in fear, little flock. It has pleased your Father to give you the kingdom" (Luke 12:32). Because our heavenly Father is the perfect Father, Who is all-powerful Love, we need not be afraid of anything, including the awesome consequences of our lives on earth. We can face the most mind-boggling facts because we have a miraculous security grounded in our heavenly Father's providential love.

Therefore, let us not be afraid of life or the afterlife. Let us face the truth and prepare for Christ's final coming at any time.

 Cathedral Basilica of Our Lady of Peace – August 13 & 14, 2016

Join us in supporting the Cathedral Renewal Campaign to renovate and restore our historic Hawaiian cathedral! The mother church of our Diocese, dedicated in 1843, has been serving the Catholic community of Hawaii for more than 170 years. A relic of St. Damien and the remains of St. Marianne are enshrined in the Cathedral. Today, the Cathedral Basilica of Our Lady of Peace needs your help to ensure she remains standing for future generations to enjoy, just as we benefit from the efforts of our ancestors and Catholic predecessors.
